Notes:

Rates include 7% VAT

In the event of requiring a lift pass that comprises the same number of days in two different season periods, the overall rate charged for the total number of days will be that according to the "lower" season rate.

E.g. For a lift pass running 2 days at mid season & 2 days at high season, the total 4 days will be charged at the mid season rate.

In the event of requiring a lift pass that runs into two or more different season periods but for varied numbers of days in each, the total number of days will be calculated at the rate according to the season period that occurs most.

E.g.1 For a lift pass running 3 days in mid season and 1 day in high season, the total 4 days will be calculated at the mid season rate.

E.g.2 For a lift pass running 2 days mid season and 4 days high season, the total 6 days will be charged at the high season rate.
